

Dress Rehearsal For Shows

Trying on new fashions and choosing right accessories in preparation for their fourth annual Fashion shows presented by Nativity Mothers, are these committee members and models, front, John Cuffel, who will model the newest fashions for men; Mmes. David Berganini, committee member, assisting Mrs. Donald Krauser, model; and Mrs. Robert Pouty, model, getting a hand from Mrs. John Bukaty, committee member. "Roses and Lollipops" is the theme of this year's show. (Press-Herald Photo)

Two Evenings of Fashions Set by Nativity Mothers

Nativity Annex, 1415 Engracia Avenue, Torrance will set the stage for the Nativity Mothers Club fourth annual fashion show "Roses and Lollipops" Thursday and Friday, April 24 and 25 at 8 p.m.

Commentator for the women's and men's fashions provided by Torrance Fashion firms will be Bernard Sklar. Mistress of ceremonies for the evening will be Mrs. Laurence Kutus. Club members to model the colorful ensembles will be Mmes. Curtis Brown, Robert Buchalla, Donald Krauser, Robert Littlefield, Louis Malnar, Thomas McArthur, Rudy Moreno, Robert Prouty and George Stachowitz. For an additional note, three male models will feature the masculine trends. They are John Cuffel, Edward Santella and Edward White.

Mrs. Robert Swanson has announced the grand prize for the show, a 23" color television console.

Mothers Club President, Mrs. Henry Sifers stated that the school will advance with modern education equipment from the show proceeds.

Tickets may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Harold Foley.

Funds to Be Used For Beauty

With civic beautification its prime purpose, Los Colinas Garden Club will stage a benefit Spring Dinner Dance at a Long Beach Club on May 3. Serving a dual purpose, the dolls made by Mrs. William Belford to be given to the Harbor General Hospital, will be used as decorations. They are shown here by, from left, Mmes. A. Y. Olds, William Belford and Ernest Jacobs. Mmes. Francis Brannon and Davis Cochran are chairmen. Tickets and information may be had by contacting Mmes. Ernest Jacobs or Charles Smith. (Press-Herald Photo)

Delta Zetas Install; Discuss Convention

South Bay Alumnae chapter of Delta Zeta Sorority installed its 1969-70 officers on April 8 at the home of Mrs. Harold Spang in Torrance. Mrs. Doris Johnson was co-hostess for the evening affair.

Re-elected for a second year were Mmes. E. W. Altstaetter, Palos Verdes Peninsula, president; Delvin Riesenhuber, Miraleste, first vice president; Jess L. Sevy, Palos Verdes Peninsula, second vice president; Richard Davis, Palos Verdes Estates, treasurer; James Lindsey, Palos Verdes Peninsula, historian and Lamp editor.

New officers installed were Mrs. David Iverson, Palos Verdes Peninsula, recording secretary; and Kenneth Peer, Palos Verdes Peninsula, corresponding secretary.

Committee chairmen for 1969-70 are Mmes. Harold Spang, Torrance, courtesy; Gary Kinnett, Portuguese Bend, Flame Fantasy; Doris John, Torrance, magazines; Robert C. Vasey, Palos Verdes Peninsula, philanthropy; Walter R. Wallner, Palos Verdes Estates, public relations;

Robert Southgate, Palos Verdes, Panhellenic representative; C. M. Comaford, Palos Verdes, Panhellenic alternate.

Plans were made for attending the Southern California Delta Zeta Province Convention in San Diego at the LeBaron Hotel, Mission Valley, on April 12 and 13, 1969. With the theme, "Light the Flame Anew," the program offered workshops, entertainment, and awards. There was a luncheon and an evening banquet on Saturday and a Sunday breakfast. The Delta Zeta collegiates from University of California at Los Angeles, California State College at Long Beach, California State Los Angeles, California State at Fullerton, and San Diego State College competed with skits and songs as well as for more serious awards.

Among those attending from South Bay Alumnae Chapter of Delta Zeta were Mmes. E. W. Altstaetter, John F. Thomas, Doris Johnson, and Harry Petterson along with members of sixteen other Delta alumnae chapters in Southern California.

Gala Mad Hatters Fling

These members of the Auxiliary to the North Torrance Colt League invites residents to don a "crazy" hat and join them at their Spring Dance Saturday evening at the Eagles Hall, 128 S. Catalina, Redondo. They are, from left, Mmes Ed Bowen, William E. Rose and Richard Humphrey. The Romantics will furnish music and the door prize will be a color television set. Mrs. William E. Rose is chairman. (Press-Herald Photo)

Series of Showers for Saturday Bride Patti

Miss Patti Fowler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Fowler, 1703 W. 236th St. will become the bride of Paul W. DeMello Saturday, April 19, at the First Methodist Church with Rev. Nagel officiating.

The bride-elect has been complimented at a series of pre-nuptial parties.

Mrs. Nanci Stone entertained the employees of Shell Oil Co., where Miss Fowler is employed, at a miscellaneous shower in her Long Beach home on April 2.

Attending were Mmes. Carol Moore, Janna Russell, Carol Heyl, Esther Larkin, Jeannie McKibbin, Pat Dock; Misses Jan Phillips, Mary Hillas, Jane Payne, and Marilyn Hart.

Sending gifts were Mmes. Cathy Carter, Mildred Schafer; and Misses Freda Kirk, Peggy Moran, and Georgia Donnelly.

Mrs. Charles Bower was hostess at a bridal shower for Miss Fowler in her Lomita home on April 4.

Arriving with gifts for the new home were Mmes. Carole Lawver, Virginia Buckalew, Bea Oglesby, Linda Thorne, Pauline Eubanks, Dorothy DeMello, Jessie Fowler and Bea Keller.

Others were Misses Eloise Bower, Tera Lynn Buckalew, and Linda Flagg.

The future bride was also honored at a personal shower and luncheon given last Saturday by Mrs. Virginia Buckalew and Miss Linda Flagg.

For Nursing Scholarships

South Bay Hospital Auxiliary will present its "Fashionscope" show and luncheon Thursday, April 24, at the Los Verdes Country Club to raise funds for nursing scholarship which it awards each year. A cocktail hour at 11:30 precedes the luncheon and show. Grand door prize is a cruise for two aboard the Princess Carla. Making final preparations are Mmes. C. R. Walker, chairman; Willis Blackstone, model, and Thomas Whitlow, president. (Press-Herald Photo)

Las Vecinas Will Hear Discussion on 'Yoga'

Renee Taylor, lecturer and author of four books on Yoga, will be the guest speaker at Las Vecinas Women's Club meeting tomorrow at the Indian Village Restaurant.

Miss Taylor became interested in Yoga some fifteen years ago when her own health failed. She traveled to India and learned Yoga from Indra Divi. From there she traveled to Hunza, James Hilton's Shangri-La, to learn their secrets to longevity and health. Miss Taylor has put her knowledge to use in books and in teaching others "Outer Beauty and Peace from the Inner Life."

The Nominating Committee will present its slate of officers for the Executive Board for the coming year to the general membership. Election will take place at the May meeting.

Social hour begins at 11 a.m. and luncheon will be served at 12 noon.

Mrs. Garner 92 Years Young

Mrs. Kate Garner of Hermosa Beach, formerly of Redondo, celebrated her 92nd birthday on March 30.

She was guest of honor at a surprise patio barbecue given by friends, Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Kruse and daughters, Nancy and Mary of Torrance.

Mrs. Garner, who has been an area resident since 1945, is the mother of six children living in Oklahoma and Texas and one daughter, Mrs. Ray Miller of Hermosa. She has 11 grandchildren, 35 great grandchildren and six great-great grandchildren. Her most recent great-great grandchild, Jennifer Joyce Eggers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Eggers was a special guest at the party.

Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bolin and son, Dale, Mrs. Terra Looman and son, Jay; Earl Smith and Mrs. Virginia Gill, all of Redondo.

The group presented Mrs. Garner with a new barbecue for her patio.

There's No Generation Gap

Mrs. Kate Garner, who celebrated her 92nd birthday on March 30, holds the bottle for her most recent great-great-grandchild, Jennifer Joyce Eggers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Eggers of Harbor City.